

Wayne County, Illinois Statistics

Welcome to Wayne County

Wayne County is comprised of 713.9 square miles of land. Total land area of the state is 55,583.58 square miles. Wayne County ranks in the top 20 in soybean production and ranks second in the state for turkey production. The population density is 24 persons per square mile as compared to the state's 223 persons per square mile.

County seat: Fairfield
County population: 16,294

Agricultural Statistics

Wayne County (2011)

Total acres harvested (all crops)	273,100 acres
Total soybean acres harvested	139,100 acres
Average soybean yield	34.5 bushels per acre
Total soybean yield	4,795,000 bushels
Total receipts for all crops (2010)	$126,262,000
Total receipts for soybeans (2010)	$54,678,000

Wayne County from the 2007 census (last available data)

Number of farms	1,233
Land in acres	33,255 acres
Average size of farms	270 acres

Wayne County ranking

43rd in receipts for crops in Illinois (2010)
14th in soybean acres in Illinois

Statewide (2011)

Total acres farmland (all crops)	22,899,000 acres
Total soybean acres harvested	8,860,000 acres
Total soybean yield	416,420,000 bushels
Average soybean yield	47 bushels per acre
Number of farms	74,600
Average size of farms (2010)	351 acres
Total receipts for all crops (2010)	$14,856,796,000
Total receipts for soybeans (2010)	$4,955,398,000

Sources: USDA NASS-IL STATS; USDA Economic Research Service; US Census Bureau 2010; 2007 USDA Ag Census

1605 Commerce Parkway, Bloomington IL 61704
Phone: 309-663-7692
Email: ilsoy@ilsoy.org
www.ilsoy.org

